EXECUTIVE AGENCY

NSC Declassification/Release Instructions on File

7 October 1947

Chief Disbursement Officer
Division of Disbursement
Treasury Department
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:

In accordance with informal arrangements made between your office and representatives of the Budget and Finance Branch of this Agency, there are attached certified copies of a resolution passed by the National Security Council on 26 September 1947, a copy of a delegation of authorities executed by the Executive Secretary, NSC on 1 October 1947, and a copy of this Office's letter to the Comptroller General of the United States in which there is briefly outlined the procedure which is to be followed by this Agency in administering funds made available to the NSC for the conduct of its activities.

As previously indicated to you by our representatives, it is desired to follow the same procedures with respect to NSC vouchers and accounts that have been followed in the handling of vouchers and accounts applicable to the working fund established for the Central Intelligence Agency.

Should you have any further questions or suggestions relative to the arrangements which have been made regarding this matter, kindly advise.
